PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH.

The Building to Be Occupied by Christ—The New Pastor.

It will be pleasing intelligence to the people of Phoenix to learn that work will be at once recommenced on the Presbyterian church and that the stately structure will probably be completed and ready for occupancy by Christmas. There remains yet to be done a large amount of interior finishing and for this purpose the amount of $3000 has been subscribed and will be expended.

Fine cathedral-glass windows, costing $250 have been ordered from Chicago, as well as heavy oak doors. Attractive furniture will also be put into place, when the edifice will be one of the most complete houses of worship in the city. Rev. R. E. Field, of Cheyenne, Wyoming, has accepted a call to the pastorate, and is expected to arrive today to assume his new charge. New Onyx Quarry.

THE REPUBLICAN was shown some specimens of onyx yesterday from a new quarry, recently discovered, that excels in quality the onyx of the famous quarry near Prescott. The quarry lies just across the Yavapai County line, and is forty-five miles from Phoenix and only six miles from an old established wagon road. It was located by Richard Holmes, James Woodson and others, and the gentlemen interested believe they have a valuable property. The ledge as far as examined has been traced for a considerable distance, and is twelve feet deep on an average, by 600 feet in width. A number of specimens have been sent to California to be dressed and polished, and if satisfactory, the work of development will be pushed. There is plenty of water within half a mile of the bed, and it can be worked every month in the year.

Nearly complete official returns show the Iowa Republican State ticket as entirely successful.

TEMPE TOPICS.

News Jotting From the Little City Up the River.

Special Correspondence of THE REPUBLICAN.

TEMPE, November 11, 1890.

This town is keeping up with the march of improvement. John S. Armstrong has shipped the first car of dried peaches ever shipped from Arizona, consigned to Chicago, and will forward in a few days to the same point, a carload of raisins and dried grapes.

It is understood that a strong company has been formed for the purpose of establishing evaporating works at this point in time for next year's fruit crop. The members of the organization are Neils Peterson, E. G. Frankenberg, C. S. Masten and John S. Armstrong.

An intelligent lot of people were those who arrived here yesterday from Kansas, and T. L. Schultz deserves credit for interesting such a class in the advantages of the Salt River Valley. They are all solid looking and, unless I am much mistaken, would make a success in any country.

There are rumors in the air of an extensive mining enterprise to be inaugurated soon by several local citizens. A leading merchant states that business is much better now than during the same month last year.

C. T. Hayden is adding to his flouring mill a complete new patent roller system, in order to keep up with the times. THE REPUBLICAN is decidedly the best newspaper ever published in Arizona, and all are anxious to get it, as it comes to the postoffice bright and early every morning in the year.

TEMPERANCE LECTURES.

Visit to Phoenix of the Grand Lecturer of the Good Templars.

Prof. William Crowhurst, of California, grand lecturer of the Independent Order of Good Templars, will begin a lecture tour of the Territory, in Phoenix, on Saturday evening next, at the Washington Street Methodist Episcopal church.

After spending a week in this valley and Tempe, he will go to Florence, Tucson, Bisbee and Tombstone, and return via the Atlantic & Pacific, lecturing at Flagstaff, Prescott and other points.

He comes to Phoenix well recommended, being one of the most successful lecturers in the temperance cause that has appeared before the people during the last twenty years.

On Sunday and Monday evenings he will lecture in the opera house—all the churches in the city having consented to join in a grand union service on Sunday evening.

THE DISTRICT COURT.

Proceedings of Yesterday's Session of the Fall Term.

In the District Court the first case called yesterday morning was that of Rosevia R. Gregory against Paul Smiley. A motion to set aside a former judgment was argued. The case was later settled by the parties.

In the matter of the estate of Frank Fry, deceased, the case was set for trial Monday, November 17.

Argument of law points in the case of Lydia L. Conger against the Walnut Grove Water Storage Company, a corporation, is fixed for Friday, November 21.

Stipulations were filed and judgment entered for plaintiff in the case of Isaac Greenfeldt against Kalisher et al.

Judgment was ordered entered for plaintiff in the case of Gibbs against Brooks by consent of the parties. Defendant paid costs, but did not waive any rights for future action.
